

2015

MLP-MSP

Minneapolis June 12th-14th

MLP-MSP 2015 has arrived! After our first year in 2014, the answer was clear: It. Must. Happen. Again.

Preparing last year was too much fun not to do it again in 2015. Just like 2014, we'll bring My Little Pony fans unique excitement and provide a place to hangout with old friends, make new friends, and have a fun, family-friendly weekend.

We're very excited to be back at the Ramada Bloomington where we hope you enjoy yourself for the weekend, be it relaxing poolside or visiting the Mall of America!

We have a line up of show staff and community guests alike this year, with ample opportunity to add photos and autographs to your collection, or start a totally new one! With a bigger panel line-up, even more great art and merchandise in our vendor hall, a dedicated table-top gaming room, and two concerts, this year has coalesced into an over-the-top event sure to be remembered long after June.

Whether you're finally meeting friends from online, getting together with old friends, finding new friends, meeting your favorite show staff, or just partying like Pinkie Pie, I would just like to say thank you for coming and WELCOME TO MLP-MSP 2015!

-Chase Hedges
Founder/
Co-Con Chair

MLP-MSP has once again partnered with Give Us Wings to help those in need in Kenya and Uganda. In 2014, we managed to raise over $8,000 with at our charity auction. This year, you can help Give Us Wings and their cause once again by joining us at our charity auction Sunday afternoon.

Give Us Wings is made up almost entirely of volunteers, including the Board of Directors and the Steering Committee. They are committed to ensuring that the majority of the funds they raise go to meet people's needs in Kenya and Uganda. The Give Us Wings approach is one that empowers people to be self-sufficient, rather than becoming dependent on assistance. The ultimate goal of all of their projects is that those they help will one day be self-sustaining.

When Give Us Wings travels to Kenya and Uganda, they meet the people not the statistics. They work person-to-person, and their funding follows that model. They ask the hardworking people in Kenya and Uganda what will work for them. This approach empowers those in Kenya and Uganda to take responsibility and ownership over the decisions they've made. It also helps provide tools for life without destroying culture and tradition.

Give Us Wings stays with groups and individuals as they develop the skills needed for long-term success. The organization provides business and leadership training. Through their micro-financing initiative, Building Businesses for Family Sustainability, they fund well-conceived business plans and agricultural projects proposed by the people themselves.
