A WORD FROM OUR LEADER

Dear Attendees,

Funny how things just happen. How we cling on to an idea, a goal, and we just refuse to let it go. Such is how this convention came to be. A mere thought that was continuously fed and always sought after. This idea was "Let's start a Brony convention in Sacramento." Thus, the idea flourished and became what is known today as Sac Brony Expo. All I can say is thank you everyone who supported us and did whatever they could to help this ship set sail.

Thank you, Bronies, for spreading the word, helping us kick start the event, and of course, for being your awesome selves. Thank you, staff, for all your very hard work. Without you all, clearly none of this would be here, but I wouldn't have also met such fantastic individuals. And of course, thank you My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic, for encouraging to pursue that small thought in our heads.

Enjoy yourselves, everypony! Y'all made this happen!

Brohooves all around,
- Carlos M. Alfaro (Convention Chair)
