WILSON DISEASE® ASSOCIATION

Sunshine PonyCon is proud to support the Wilson Disease Association through this year's charity auction. Wilson disease is rare, serious, and often misunderstood, and organizations like the WDA help connect patients and families with research, education, and support.

Every donation to the Wilson Disease Association (WDA) directly fuels life-changing research, increases vital awareness, and provides critical support to individuals and families affected by Wilson disease. Your generosity creates hope—and delivers measurable impact.

100% of proceeds, minus payment processing and transaction fees, will be donated to the Wilson Disease Association.

Gameburger

Ask Mario, Let's Talk About Depression, My Little Deal

Meet the artist formerly known as TheKreepyKevin… GAMEBURGER!

You may know Kevin from pony cons, wrestling, stand-up, or his sacred devotion to pizza. He's a longtime brony, lovable chaos gremlin, and host of "Let's Talk About Depression," where he speaks openly to help others.

DeadlyComics

A Tribute to Spike, The Heist of the Century

DeadlyComics likes ponies, drawing, drawing ponies, and of course, pony drawing. Sometimes there are so many pony drawings in a row that they almost look like they move when you look at them fast enough. One day, maybe someone will invent a word for that. Until then,you can find his pony art, animations, and other assorted cartoon chaos on his YouTube channel.

After washing ashore at Sunshine PonyCon, DeadlyComics finds himself greeted by a new crew of cool pony friends. What adventures will unfold from there? Will there be friendship? Drama? Questionable beach safety practices? Probably at least one drawing of a pony. Probably.

Hibiscus Stitch

Vendor Hall - Table 2 | FrankenPlushie, Commissioning an Artist 101, SPC Plushtainment Breach, Cosplay Contest, So You Got Sand On Your Plush

Hibiscus Stitch is a plush artist, maker, panel host, and professional fabric-scrap generator with a long history of turning creative chaos into things you can actually hold. She began sewing plushies around age 15, and after many experiments, mistakes, and suspicious amounts of loose thread, turned that hobby into her full-time career. Her first manufactured plush design, a jellyfish, debuted in 2018.

At Sunshine PonyCon, Hibiscus Stitch brings craft knowledge, convention experience, and plush-focused programming to help attendees learn more about making, caring for, and accessorizing their plush friends. Come talk plush and admire years of alarming commitment to soft objects.

Andy Price

Vendor Hall - Table 11

Andy Price is an illustrator, writer, and longtime pony comics legend best known as one of the lead artists behind IDW Publishing's My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic comics. His expressive, detail-packed art has helped bring Equestria to comic shops, bookshelves, and convention autograph lines around the world.

A graduate of the Joe Kubert School, Andy's work also includes credits with DC Comics, Marvel, Archie Comics, LEGO, Star Trek, Adventure Time, Quantum Leap, and more. Come say hello at Sunshine PonyCon and meet a man who has drawn a professionally concerning amount of ponies.

Tiny Ribbon

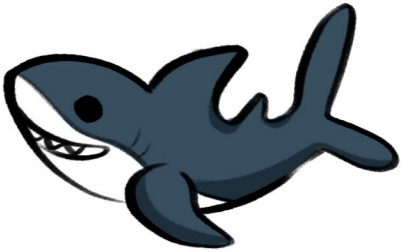

Vendor Hall - Table 5 | Cosplay Contest

Tiny Ribbon, also known as Abby, is an artist with one highly specialized skill: drawing the things she loves very, very much. Her favorite subjects include ponies, memes, animals, comics, and other deeply important cultural artifacts that art school tragically failed to appreciate enough.

At Sunshine PonyCon, Tiny Ribbon brings a very pink corner of custom art, stickers, keychains, commissions, plushie clothes, and other cute little treasures. She may be a little shy, but stop by, say hi, and admire the work of someone who thas turned loving ponies into a full-time artistic condition.
