 Sequoia's Haunted Treehouse (Cali B)

The Choicest Voice is an Extra minigame that appears in Mario Party: Island Tour. In this minigame, the players use the microphone to imitate a randomly selected character's voice. After that, the characters are judged by Rainbow Dash, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Applejack, and Rarity. If a judge likes it, the character receives 10 points for each sign held. In single player, the character needs 90 points or more to win within three rounds. In multiplayer, whoever has the most points after three rounds wins. Twilight Sparkle will appear as another judge in four player sessions, for a total of six judges. The above text is from the Super Mario Wiki and is available under a Creative Commons license.
