Tired of people getting us all wrong? Joe Strike was, which is why he sat down several years ago to write "Furry Nation: A Very Human Story," the inside story of the fandom. Apart from being a "greymuzzle" who discovered the fandom in 1988 not long after its birth, Joe is a published author and animation journalist whose work has appeared in numerous publications including the New York Daily News and the animation industry website Animation World Network (awn.com). Joe will discuss his decision to write the book, his search for an agent with access to publishers, and the challenge of actually writing the damn thing! "Furry Nation: A Very Human Story" will be published by Cleis Press in late 2017, but it's not too late to share your story of what turned you furry and how you discovered the fandom!
